

A history of caring and support

Since 1906, donors like you have remained steadfast in your commitment that every Lutheran Home resident, regardless of financial abilities, will continue to receive our exceptional care.

You grasp how our residents are treasured, children of God. And, together, the Lutheran Home and Harwood Place donors give to care for and protect the next generation of our residents.

Plan a gift, impact our future

For the first time in our history, legacy donors have asked to join in celebration of their commitment to extend their support and make a lasting impression on future residents. They are paying it forward.

Join them by considering what your legacy could be for the residents who may come after you. Or to honor the employees who took excellent care of your loved one; or as a tribute to the religious and spiritual needs that proudly fill our day with light and love.

Ways to begin your legacy

Planned giving is a personal decision and can take many forms.

Bequests. A gift through your will or trust, either for a specific dollar amount, or a percent of your estate, can be distributed in one sum or over time based on your preference. Let's talk about what matters to you. We currently have a 20-year gift that gives $19,000 every year and helps to ensure the quality of our medical equipment in the care of our residents. We also received a $400,000 one-time gift that enabled completion of a long-needed special project.

Stocks. A gift of stock is a valuable tool for you to give and a strong asset for the Lutheran Home Foundation. We are committed to selling stocks immediately. Our goal is to receive 1906 shares of stock every year.

Life insurance. You may not be aware that life insurance is an important and under-utilized gifting tool. These policies pass outside of your will and are not subject to probate. You can make the Lutheran Home Foundation the beneficiary or the owner of an existing life insurance policy.

There are other ways to give that provide ongoing income for yourself and demonstrate your intentions now and payout later. Charitable Remainder Trusts and Charitable Gift Annuities are two more ways to join our 1906 Society and support the Lutheran Home Foundation.

Consider the Lutheran Home Foundation as part of your legacy and make our next 120 years one for the record books. Thank you for choosing the Lutheran Home Foundation.

All things come from God, through God, and return to God.
